Secretary Ashley Seats 	Ashley Seats graduated from Winthrop University as a Teaching Fellow with a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. She later attended the University of South Carolina earning a 4.0 GPA while obtaining her Masters in Educational Administration degree. As a certified middle-level mathematics educator, she is also endorsed to teach gifted and talented students, and is a teacher mentor, 4.0 SC evaluator, as well as a UofSC coaching teacher. Ashley is a SC Financial Literacy Master Teacher candidate and the Stock Market Game coach at her school. She also coaches the MathCounts team and is a member of Palmetto State Teachers Association. Ashley has been a classroom teacher for 16 years and for the past six years has been teaching 7th grade math and Pre-Algebra at Meadow Glen Middle School in Lexington, SC. She is married and has 2 daughters. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, shopping, traveling with her family, volunteering at church, and cuddling with her dogs.